Recessional

Farewell Address given by Karen Bartolac.

How Appropriate to Call Graduation a Commencement. For It Is Not an Ending, but a Beginning. One Is Now Ready to Move Onward to the Work of a Lifetime. Not What Is Finished, but What Yet Remains to Be Achieved Is the Emphasis of Graduation Day. Inviting Ahead Lies a Wonderful Future, and Opportunity Lures One Onward. How Thrilling to Be Young and Eagerly Looking Forward With a Heart Full of Excitement!

Defending M & O Conference Champions

Key defensive scenes like the ones whown here exhibit why the Badgers were tops in that M & O Conference category . . .

Allowing only 1,107 yards and 59 points in 8 games, owning 3 shut-outs, forcing numerous fumbles, the "Purple People Eaters" were a major factor in Niagara's success.

DEFENSIVE STATISTICS: Yards Allowed: 586 passing, 521 rushing, 1,107 total.
AVERAGE YARDAGE ALLOWED PER GAME: 73.25 passing, 65.125 rushing, 138.375 total.
BEST DEFENSIVE GAME: Against Suring, gave only 6 yards passing, 13 rushing, for a 7 total, while posting a 62-20 point shutout.
TOP TACKLERS: Tom Osier and Dan Aderman.

Finish Second to Peshtigo . . .

You can't win without offense and points, and the Badgers had that this year too. Second best offensive team in the M & O, the Purple Machine gained 2,041 total yards during the season and scored 199 points . . .

Averaging 255 yards (114 passing and 141 rushing) and 25 points per game, Niagara was led by Larry Marcellis' 767 passing yards to Jim St. Louis and Gary Sibilsky and top rushing by Steve Chartier, Dan Aderman, and Randy Wodenka.

OFFENSIVE STATISTICS: Yards gained: 913 passing; 1,128 rushing; 2,041 total. Average gained per game: 114 passing, 141 rushing, 255 total.

TOP RUSHING: S. Chartier - 437 yards, 7 touchdowns; D. Aderman - 263 yards, 5 touchdowns, R. Wodenka - 147 yards, 4 touchdowns.

TOP PASSING: L. Marcellis - 767 yards, 54.7%, 8 touchdowns, G. Sibilsky - 146 yards, 25%, 1 touchdown.

TOP RECEIVING: G. Sibilsky - 7 touchdowns, J. St. Louis 3 touchdowns.

BEST OFFENSIVE GAME: Against Suring - 470 yards and 62 points.

Coaches Corner

"Senior durability, Junior versatility, Sophomore enthusiasm, and Freshman eagerness were some of the qualities that made up the 75 Badger track squad. A team that was a few pulled muscles and a sore knee away from a conference championship. A team led by Seniors who came through when they were needed most. This year's nucleus of Seniors established a winning tradition in "Badger Track" that should serve as a model for those to follow.

"Participation in tennis as in all sports, helps to build teamwork, sportsmanship, character, and improvement of mental and physical developments. However, the greatest asset the tennis player gains is a sport that he can take with him after his school days are over. It is a continuing sport that helps to keep a person physically fit - in a enjoyable outlet throughout life.

I.M.C.

This year our school saw some remodeling and expansion. The former library and study hall were combined into one room, the Instructional Material Center. Carrolls, tape players, and projectors were bought. The I.M.C. added new opportunities for research and studying. Special thanks go to Mrs. McCarthy for her talent and time she put into the new center.

ACTIVITIES

Homecoming Week

An eventful Homecoming week was planned by the Student Council, and carried out by various organizations. Pep sessions, a bonfire, a faculty leg contest, a kangaroo court, and various class projects highlighted the football spirit.

1972 Homecoming Court of Honor

The Coronation

Jim St. Louis is crowned 1972 Homecoming King.

King Jim crowns Queen Dinah Anderson.

The royal couple, King Jim St. Louis and Queen Dinah Anderson, are presented.

Grand March and the Homecoming Dance

A victorious Homecoming Dance was held after the defeat of Lena 21-0. The dance was held in the gym from 9-12, with the music provided by "Jaramago".

One Act Play

"The Final Edition", a play in one act was presented at the sub-district contest held at Niagara in October 1972 and received an "A" rating. The group traveled to Green Bay in November for the district contest, where they received a "B" rating. The director was Miss Schunk, and the cast included Karen Bartolac, Lynn Kallenback, Pat Hohol, and Brian Sherman. The production managers were Karen Sherman, and Kathy O'Connell. The prompter was Roxanne McCormack.

1973 Prom Court of Honor

"Pieces of April"

"Pieces of April" was the theme of the Junior Prom held April 28, 1973. Over fifty couples stirred beneath the mint green, lavender, and yellow spring setting to the gentle sounds of the "High Tones." The high-light of the evening was the coronation and grand march led by the 1973 royalty - Dave Parent and Marcia Sibilsky. The few glimpses of the evening recorded here are small fragments of the pieces of that April night to be kept "in a memory bouquet."
